THANK YOU!

Veterans For Peace is immensely grateful to Ralph Nader for providing another Matching Grant for our Giving Tuesday appeal. And we are immensely grateful to everyone who responded to that appeal: Not counting Ralph's generous contribution of $5,000, we raised a whopping $16,253.40 on Giving Tuesday!

If you were one of those who gave, please give yourself a pat on the back, and if for some reason you were out of the room when our Giving Tuesday appeal was made and you are moved to drop a few coins in our fundraising bucket, feel free to click the button below.

VFP Responds to Crisis in Gaza:
Shuts Down Scranton Ammunition Plant
Last Sunday, VFP National Director Mike Ferner participated in the protest and die-in at the U.S. Army Ammunition Plant in Scranton, New York, along with Nick Mottern, Jack Gilroy, Gabrielle Murphy, Elliott Adams, Rafed Aljoboury, John Amidon, and many from the local Palestinian community calling for a halt to Israel's genocidal bombing campaign that has killed many thousands in past weeks. About 150 people total showed up for this sixth protest, effectively shutting down plant operations that day. Photos: Gary Ingraham. See FULL ALBUM HERE.

On December 6, Patrick McCann reports attending a big protest in Boca Raton, Florida, at a synagogue where Israeli politician Naftali Bennett spoke at a fundraiser. Approximately 200 protesters turned out; overwhelmingly Palestinians joined by Jewish Voices for Peace and other peace activists. Patrick reports he "passed out 49 copies of Peace and Planet News and lent them a bullhorn to add to the volume."

In North Carolina, rallies are being held at least once/week with hundreds turning out, largely Palestinians along with many other allies including VFP members. "The Peace Truck has been a great addition," writes Vicki Ryder, "and is loudly cheered whenever it makes its appearance. We're so grateful to VFP for the financial boost to make it happen. Ceasefire NOW!"
The Scranton action was reported in several places. Here are two:

VETERANS FOR PEACE ON SOCIAL MEDIA

"Mike Madden displays the amount of money Sen. Klobuchar has received from AIPAC over the years, enough to support an apartheid state...."

Thus reads the caption on this photo of Madden posted by VFP on X [Twitter] in response to Amy Klobuchar's "I stand with Israel..." statement posted in October. Many people re-tweeted the post as a comment on Amy's post. So far, the VFP post has garnered 3,895 Likes and 1,483 Reposts.

FROM OUR FRIENDS at COMBATANTS FOR PEACE
EARLIER TODAY, members of Combatants for Peace presented on the topic "Courage in the Unknown: Exploring New Possibilities." The conversation was led by two Palestinian activists, Ahmed Helou and Nizar Farsakh, and two Israeli activists, Hadar Cohen and Avi Dabush. The discussion was moderated by Luma Eldin and Ben Yeger. The online event was recorded. WATCH IT HERE.

The second annual Ellisberg Lecture, presented by the Ellisberg Initiative for Peace and Democracy (EIPAD) on November 15, 2023, featured Norman Solomon speaking on "The Madness of Militarism." [The lecture begins at minute 9:25 in the video.]

"I VERY HIGHLY RECOMMEND this powerful talk by Norman Solomon. It should be seen/heard by every person who cares about the future of the human race." —David Hartsough, author, Waging Peace

"I totally agree with David Hartsough. Norman Solomon tells it like it is. So did Daniel Ellsberg. The United States is ADDICTED To WAR." —Frank Dorrel, publisher, Addicted to War comic book

San Diego Compassion Campaign

Members of San Diego VFP Chapter 91 hit the streets of San Diego on November 27 to distribute sleeping bags to some of the over 5,000 unshelterd Americans living on the streets of what the city's motto calls "America's Finest City," in the richest country in the world. An additional 5,000+ people are housed in temporary tent cities under city control for the winter.

Jan Ruhman writes: "We always go home feeling good about the interactions of humanizing these folks by introducing ourselves, asking their names, putting out a hand to shake theirs, and inquiring if they could use a new sleeping bag. Since 2011, we have purchased 5,519 sleeping bags and distributed all but 100 of those. To date we have raised $189,665. Our mission is to distribute bags to those most in need – usually the new folks coming to the streets with the clothes on their backs and a blanket. We are blessed to help these neighbors in our very limited way." In the photo: Jan Ruhman and Stan Levin

Did you fly or work on Ospreys during your military service?

VFP was contacted by a reporter who wants to talk to someone familiar with flying or maintaining Ospreys. If you fit that description and are willing to be interviewed, please contact Mike Ferner at mike@veteransforpeace.org.

Poor People's Army March

Also known as the Poor People’s Economic Human Rights Campaign, the mission of the nonviolent Poor People’s Army is to keep people alive and to build a cooperative economy and society. Endorsed by Veterans For Peace, the two-week Poor People’s Army March will go from Milwaukee – site of the Republican National Convention (July 15) – to Chicago – site of the Democratic National Convention (August 19). The march will deliver the same message to both conventions: We reject corporate greed and demand an end to poverty.
