San Diego Veterans For Peace, in collaboration with many other local pro-climate groups, are asking the U.S. Marines to stop the Blue Angels from flying over San Diego in September. These air shows are an egregious waste of fossil fuel and only contribute to the climate crisis. The Department of Defense and the U.S. military has long ago identified the climate crisis as our biggest national threat, so we demand that the Marines get on board with that fact and cancel the September show.

The PRESS and the PUBLIC have been invited to join Chapter 91 members in two nonviolent demonstrations. If you are in the SoCal region, please join us:

TODAY! THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14 • 4–6 PM PDT
on the Carroll Canyon overpass above the I-15

TOMORROW! FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15 • 4–6 PM PDT on the 6th Avenue overpass above the I-5 downtown

Veterans For Peace, the VFP Climate Crisis & Militarism Project, and the VFP Washington, DC, Chapter are all partner organizations in the March to End Fossil Fuels New York City, where our members will be participating in the Anti-Militarism Hub. If you are in the greater NYC area, please join us:

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17 • 1–4:30 PM EDT
Gather at Noon on Broadway between 54th & 57th Streets

Action Alert

The Ukrainian peace activist who spoke at the VFP convention needs our help!
Yurii Sheliazhenko, PhD, is a Member of the Board of Directors of World BEYOND War. He is based in Ukraine.
See below from our colleagues at World BEYOND War to find out more. Then please sign the petition and forward to friends.

From World BEYOND War: We’ve just learned that the office of the prosecutor and the “security service” of Ukraine have published press releases claiming to have put a stop to the activities of the “vicious Russian propagandist Yuri Sheliazhenko.”

Yuri Sheliazhenko has been formally charged by the Ukrainian government with the crime of justifying Russian aggression. The evidence is this statement which explicitly condemns Russian aggression.

Next week, Yuri will face prosecution in Kyiv, and members of World BEYOND War will be there to deliver a petition — please sign it now! — asking that the prosecution be dropped. If you can get to Kyiv next week and support Yuri, please contact us.

The VFP Flag Superpower

One of the strategies employed by VFP Chapter of the Year Kansas City #097 in building their chapter was to issue each of their members their own Veterans For Peace flag.

Displaying a VFP flag in public is one simple but potentially powerful action veterans can take. The stark black-and-white logo flag is eye-catching and our name itself makes a strong statement: "Veterans For Peace." It makes people think.

VFP flags flown respectfully at events organized by other peace and justice groups can help build familiarity and trust while showing solidarity with allies. And a mess of flags grouped together can make a pretty, impactful picture.
Flags and other VFP-branded goods are available at the VFP Store.

Caitlin Johnstone’s piece featured in the September 13 issue of Caitlin’s Newsletter just about says it all: "The U.S. Air Force Is Clearing Out Jungles In The Pacific To Prepare For War With China"

In John Pilger’s documentary, The Coming War on China (2020), he interviews Eric Li, a Shanghai entrepreneur educated at UC Berkeley and Stanford University. The following partial transcript of Li’s remarks illuminates a huge difference between our two nations.

"China is...a vibrant market economy, but it is not a capitalist country. Here’s why. There's no way a group of billionaires could control the Politburo as billionaires control American policy making.

"So in China...capital does not rise above political authority. Capital does not have enshrined rights.

"In America, the interests of capital and capital itself have risen above the American nation. The political authority cannot check the power of capital and that's why America is a capitalist country but China is not."

The Gainesville 8
In July of 1972, 23 members and supporters of VVAW were subpoenaed to a Grand Jury in Florida and 8 were charged with conspiracy to disrupt the 1972 Democratic convention. Fifty years ago last month, the "Gainesville 8" were found not guilty of conspiracy. Here is a report with photos of their 50th anniversary reunion.
