

Cuba Explorer and Jim Ryerson invite you to save a thousand dollars or more, on our latest tours to Cuba.

Going to Cuba has never been more convenient and less expensive.

With daily non-stop flight from cities around the country, you can join us in Havana and start your Cuba adventure.

Previously, you had to fly on a charter out of Miami, and which required being at the airport 4 hours in advance. This meant you needed to book a hotel the night before to assure you could make the flight, then book another hotel room to make your departing flight out of Miami. The 2 nights in a Miami hotel, added to the additional cost of flying charter, led to more than a thousand dollars in additional costs, and serious convenience problems. Those days are over. Please contact Jim directly indicating when you would like to travel. It's your decision.

Jim Ryerson

Jimryerson@earthlink.net

323-504-5054

Here are the current flights

Alaska Airlines Los Angeles to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

American Airlines Miami to Havana, four daily round-trip flights

Charlotte to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Delta Air Lines New York's JFK to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Atlanta to Havana, one daily round-trip

Miami to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Frontier Airlines Miami to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

JetBlue Airways Fort Lauderdale to Havana, two round-trip flights daily (except only once on Saturdays)

New York JFK to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Orlando to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Southwest Airlines Fort Lauderdale to Havana, two daily round-trip flights

Tampa to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Spirit Airlines Fort Lauderdale to Havana, two daily round-trip flights

United Airlines Newark to Havana, one daily round-trip flight

Houston to Havana, one weekly round-trip flight (on Saturdays)

Our tours are led by Cuba Travel Expert Jim Ryerson who has been visiting the island since 1998, making more than 30 trips and leading 5 groups of Americans on our Educational and People to People excursions. We can fashion tours of any length, and can arrange for you or your group to stay on in Cuba after the formal tour has ended. Please be sure to read what those who have traveled with us have said about Jim's tours.

Robin Groth, Vashon Island, Washington

March 2016

Have you been thinking about going to Cuba but have yet to find the right person to take you there? Look no further! His name is Jim Ryerson and he leads tours for Cuba Explorer. What makes Jim unique is that he has traveled to Cuba more than 30 times, studied the history and culture because he is passionate about the country, and goes above and beyond to introduce you to the people and places that he has gotten to know personally during these three decades of travel to a country he loves. As a journalist, author and a former television broadcaster in Los Angeles, Jim is always curious and if he doesn't have the answer to your questions, he gets the answer from his topnotch Havana team who you will meet upon your arrival and will be with you every day of your tour.

Jim introduced us to artists, organic farmers, veterans of war in Angola, and an 85 year old "clandestino" during the Revolution, now an economist, lawyer and professor. During this private meeting, our group gleaned a profound understanding of the life of this proud Cuban "diplomat" who is looking forward to what the immediate future may hold for his beloved country. And have I mentioned the restaurants, the "paladars" and the music? Just go – and do it NOW! Thank you Jim and Cuba Explorer for a "trip of a lifetime"!

Cecile Callan, New York

March 2016

A few people have asked for more information about how to go about traveling to Cuba. We had a terrific organizer who put it all together. Our tour was organized by former Los Angeles Television Newscaster Jim Ryerson, who has visited the island more than 30 times. He has produced 4 documentaries on Cuban life and culture, and has many contacts on the island, both with officials and ordinary Cubans.

Jane Clevenger Denver, Colorado

January 2016

What an adventure we had going with Veterans for Peace to Cuba! From the moment we landed we knew it would be a special week. We were so lucky to have Jim Ryerson leading us on this trip. His knowledge and ability to maneuver through diverse situations was excellent!

He even set up an unprecedented meeting with veterans of the Revolution and we were able to speak one-on-one with them thanks to the interpreter he had arranged. As a retired US Army veteran, that was quite special. The diversity of our tour that Jim put together made for an entertaining and educational adventure.

Jane Clevenger
US Army Retired

Loretta Young-Gautier, Denver, Colorado

January 2016

Cuba Explorer was the perfect way to experience Cuba. The Veterans for Peace tour provided an excellent cultural adventure by combining political and social appreciation with visual art, music, theater and history.

Our Host, Jim Ryerson, made it easy and convenient by taking care of all the arrangements. He expertly guided us through travel procedures, acquainted us with the monetary system and social customs, and was extremely helpful communicating with the Cuban people.

He enlightened us with a fresh understanding of American/Cuban relations through his knowledge and experience, and by arranging meetings with various dignitaries. But perhaps what stood out most to us was his friendly, accommodating and gentle demeanor. His commitment to our satisfaction and enthusiasm for all things Cuban made him truly a delight to have as our leader. We would highly recommend participating in his tours.

Jan Nichols, Denver, Colorado

January 2016

Hi Jim,

Thanks again for all your efforts to make our stay in Havana so memorable! I'm sure there were times when it wasn't easy and required some fancy footwork on your part! We had such a compatible group...everyone was very flexible and accommodating.

Cuba is a beautiful country...full of surprises and sophisticated culture. We experienced such a well balanced view of the country. I think we covered a sampling of everything, and you excelled in sharing your knowledge and passion for Cuba...and your enthusiasm was definitely contagious!

Anyway, thank you for being such a gracious host. I had a wonderful time and I look forward to visiting Cuba again in the future!

All the best,

Jan

John Koehler, Appleton, Wisconsin

January 2015

Jim,

This trip was a defining moment and a game changer for me and I have you to thank for it! I had some apprehensions about going, but you were patient and talked me through all my thousands of questions along with providing some previous contacts who were just as thrilled with trip that I was.

You and I have not known each other long, but I consider myself pretty good at reading people very quickly...you are the real deal and the world could use more folks like you Jim.

From Catherine de Leon, Sunny Isles, Florida

January 2015

I traveled with Jim on the 2015 VFP tour, and was very impressed with his longstanding, firsthand knowledge of the country, and with his many contacts. I went on the trip alone, but found those traveling to be very open, and the country to be very friendly, inviting and easy to get around. . With Jim's assistance I was able to venture out on my own, never feeling unsafe. Any future groups traveling with Jim will have a thoughtful enlightening, and enjoyable trip.

Larry Ulm Stringtown, PA

January 2015

Thinking about all the great people we met and the company we enjoyed in Cuba! Wow! What a great place! Jim, you are a good leader and am glad you are taking more lucky people back. Maybe a Cuban road trip will be in the future....count me in!

Larry

Shannon Sullivan, Minneapolis, MN

January 2015

In January of 2015, my husband and I were fortunate enough to take a trip to Cuba with Veterans for Peace with my husband's parents, led by the very knowledgeable and experienced Jim Ryerson of Hollywood, California.

We were quite excited when it turned out that the day we were to land in Havana, Cuba, that US travel was officially open to this country that has been so long repressed by the US Embargo for over 50 years. We were the first plane to land with American citizens that had the go-ahead to do so, somewhat freely. It was an historical event; an event that I am so proud to have been a part of.

Our arrival was genuinely embraced by the people of Cuba. Jim knew the 'ins -and-outs' of Havana and it's countryside and was very explicit about what we may encounter on our trip there as US visitors. We were also fortunate enough to have an excellent Cuba Guide on our tour bus, who was equally excited to have us in her country as we were to be there! Our trip was perfectly well rounded. We were introduced to the culture of the Cuban people as a whole; the arts, dance, music, education, religion, politics, agriculture, medicine, economics. Overall, Jim did a beautiful job by making certain we got an honest taste of Cuba. It was magnificent!

As we ascended into the skies from Havana, I looked through tears out over its lush hills and countryside and whispered a wish of hope to its people and its culture. I know that the people of Cuba will continue to stand tall and proud. I will continue to do my part by sharing the most vivid and most human experience I have ever had. I left a little piece of my heart there.....until we meet again.
VIVA CUBA!

Albert Penta, Seattle, Washington

November 2013

Dear Jim,

Just a quick note to say thank you for everything that you did to make the Cuba trip a wonderful experience for us. Thanks for setting it up. Thanks for attending to all the little details. Thanks for helping out me and Kim on many occasions (especially that last night back in Cancun when I was feeling so bad – *fine now). I couldn't help but notice that so many times seeing you quietly helping out someone else. Thanks on behalf of everyone.

Kim and I are both greatly inspired by the trip and are hoping to get back to Cuba again. We share your love of the Cuban people. In closing let me just say what an honor it was to have met you, and how much I appreciate you as the good, decent and beautiful human being that you are.

Gracias, mi amigo.
Paz y Amor