

Award Nomination Form

Deadline to Submit: July 30, 2019

The Gandhian Non-Violence Award

The Veterans For Peace Gandhian Non-Violence Award is given to the Associate or Full Member who best exemplifies the qualities of compassion and selfless service according to Mohandas K. Gandhi's philosophy that the highest form of service is rooted in love and non-violence and "the best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in service to others." Ideal candidates for the award would include members who give themselves unselfishly in service to others in their personal lives, and in their communities. This award is open to Full or Associate members who have passed away since the previous convention submission deadline.

Howard Zinn Lifetime Achievement Award

The Howard Zinn Lifetime Achievement Award is bestowed upon the person who, during their lifetime, have made significant and ongoing outstanding contributions to the cause of peace. This individual will have also made exceptional efforts to increase public awareness of the costs of war (via activism, teaching, writing, lecturing, the arts, music, film, stage, screen or radio).

Service and Stewardship Award

The Service and Stewardship award is given to an individual or group who/which has performed exemplary service in support of the livelihoods of veterans, advance the culture of peace in their local communities, nationally or internationally.

Leadership in Peace Award

The Leadership in Peace Award is given to the person or organization that displays initiative, inclusiveness, tirelessness and persistence in moving the mission of Veterans For Peace forward either locally, nationally or internationally.
