Mobilizations Happening Now!

KOREA PEACE ACTION IN WASHINGTON D.C.
Veterans For Peace members are mobilizing in Washington, D.C., Wednesday through Friday, July 26–28, with Korea Peace Action: National Mobilization to End the Korean War. Marking the 70th anniversary of the Korean Armistice, peace advocates from around the country are converging in the nation’s capital to call on President Biden and Congress to officially end the Korean War and replace the armistice with a peace agreement.

As a co-convener of this week’s mobilization, Veterans For Peace is a signatory on a letter that has been submitted to the State Department requesting that the travel ban to the DPRK be loosened to allow for more NGO access and more people-to-people contact.

Not able to attend this week’s mobilization? You can still take steps toward peace on the Korean Peninsula. Request your representatives to cosponsor H.R. 1369 – Peace on the Korean Peninsula Act.

CLIMATE CRISIS & MILITARISM ACTION IN SAN DIEGO TODAY!

On Thursday, July 27, San Diego Veterans For Peace begins its protest against the pollution generated by the Blue Angels at the Miramar Air Show. Chapter President Gary Butterfield writes:

> We are all experiencing the rapidly-increasing effects of climate change or reading about it in the news. Yet the Marines are still planning on bringing the Blue Angels to town, spewing their toxic greenhouse gases throughout our skies. And this is for entertainment! We can no longer afford to do Business As Usual.

Join the action! Meet on the I-15 North overpass at Carroll Canyon Road this Thursday, July 27, from 4–6 PM. (Folks have found parking in the strip mall directly to the East of the bridge.)

Breaking News from the VA

Majority of VA health care facilities receive 4 or 5 stars in CMS quality ratings, outperforming non-VA facilities

WASHINGTON – On July 26, 2023, the Department of Veterans Affairs announced that 67% of VA hospitals included in the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) annual Overall Hospital Quality Star Ratings received either 4 or 5 stars, compared to only 41% of non-VA hospitals. This was the first time VA hospitals were included in the CMS Star Ratings.

Oppenheimer, Christopher Nolan's recent film about American scientist J. Robert Oppenheimer and his role in the development of the atomic bomb, presents a perfect opportunity to launch conversations on the topic of nukes. In a recent essay, World BEYOND War's David Swanson presents us with a rich menu of factoids to prepare for such conversations.

"If you or anyone you know still thinks the U.S. had to bomb Japan to end the war or that doing so saved American lives, read David Swanson's essay . . . We've been lied to for a very long time." — Interim VFP Director Mike Ferner

SPEAKING OF FACTS . . .

VFP Chapter 80 in Duluth, Minnesota, is part of a coalition getting local resolutions passed in support of the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons (TPNW). They let us know that ICAN has a number of fact sheets available to view or download for anyone involved in this kind of campaign: These one-page handouts on reasons to abolish nukes, why it is a local issue, the treaty, etc., are perfect for educating the public and public officials.

Chapter opportunity:
Raise funds & consciousness simultaneously

Actor/ writer/ storyteller Jim Stowell adapted Tim O'Brien's classic, The Things They Carried, for a one-person stage performance that premiered in 2014 to rave reviews (including one from O'Brien himself).

At the recent Peacestock event in Red Wing, Minnesota, Stowell approached VFP Director Mike Ferner with a special offer for Veterans For Peace chapters. Essentially, he is willing to grant permission and perform the play for any VFP chapter that wants to produce and promote it. To clarify, there is a cost, but Jim Stowell is willing to work out a price that works for each chapter, in addition to travel and lodging costs.

Stowell suggested chapters consider partnering with other community groups or arts organizations in order to pull off a well-promoted production of The Things They Carried. O'Brien's work is well known and could be a fundraiser with the right promotion. To read more about the play, visit Jim Stowell's website. Jim may be reached by email at jrstowell@msn.com.
