“We Are Veterans For Peace – Join Us”

VFP members! You can get this terrific Public Service Announcement on the air in your city by contacting local TV station managers and asking them to put it in their "PSA rotation." They have no regulatory responsibility to run it, but stations always have brief times throughout the programming day to fill, which they do with PSAs -- especially well-produced ones like this -- from local public interest groups and community non-profits. New Year's Day Interfaith Peace Walk in Troy, New York

Veterans For Peace had a presence at this moving event. Tarak Kauff and Ellen Davidson joined, NYC associate members Rose and Hideko, and John Amidon from Albany. Woodstock friend Ann helped carry the banner. More than 200 people walked three miles in the cold, visiting a mosque, two churches, and a synagogue. To see more of Ellen’s photos, and the text of the powerful remarks delivered by a congregant at the synagogue, GO HERE.

Wyoming/Colorado VFP Members Join Ft. Collins Actions

RIGHT: Navy Veteran Josh Hunter came from Denver to march with Tina and about 70 others in Ft. Collins the next week. Weekly demos led by the Northern Colorado Liberation Coalition are aimed at getting the Ft. Collins City Council to pass a resolution calling for an immediate ceasefire in Gaza. Thanks to Tina Jayroe for this report.
Billboard Action in Durham, North Carolina

Doug and Vicki Ryder, members of the North Carolina Triangle Area VFP Chapter 157, created this great mobile billboard and drove it to a New Years Eve Rally in Durham.

Happy New Year from Gainesville! On New Year's Eve, VFP Chapter 14 had a contingent in the inaugural Flying Pig Parade in Gainesville, Florida. In fact, VFP member Paul Ortiz and Sheila

Baltimore Climate Action! On December 27, 2023, a broad coalition of Maryland peace activists, including Veterans For Peace, again "crashed" the Military Bowl parade before the yearly football game of mid-level college teams held in the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, Annapolis. This bowl game originated in 2008, and in 2010 military-industrial complex giant Northrop Grumman signed on as the title sponsor, partnering with the USO. This year we brought CODEPINK’s inflated elephant-in-the-room along to represent militarism's effect on climate. (It was used in the March to End Fossil Fuels in NYC last September.) About a dozen of us guided the elephant and carried banners and placards, including the Baltimore VFP chapter's climate and militarism banner (partly visible at right). We stepped right into the end of the parade, with brief police obstruction, similar to last year. Some parade viewers booed but many were friendly and supportive and took flyers.

Thanks to CCMP members Ellen Barfield and Janet Weil for this submission.

A Very Happy New Year’s Greeting
from the Desk of Mike Ferner

Dear VFP Members and Friends,

I AM SO HAPPY to announce that Casey Stinemetz is coming back on VFP staff to serve as our Membership Organizer. She returns with the same enthusiasm you saw if you worked with her before, plus several years of valuable experience gained outside of VFP.

Keeping our membership informed and mobilized is vital for grassroots peace and justice organizations like Veterans For Peace. That's why the position of Membership Organizer is so important. Having Casey in that role will make a huge difference in our ability to carry out our primary mission of abolishing war.

Welcome back, Casey! VFP board and staff members are ready to support your work in every way we can.

MIKE FERNER
Veterans For Peace National Director

P.S. We couldn't bring Casey on board without the many, many generous gifts from members and supporters received in response to our revitalized fundraising. We are incredibly grateful: to the "Cash Cadre" callers who dialed through our list; to major donors like Ralph Nader and Medea Benjamin; to the many Lifetime Members who signed up at the convention, to our growing number of monthly sustainers; and to the hundreds of people who have dug deep and repeatedly given contributions large and small—every one of which was a serious investment in Veterans For Peace. THANK YOU!

Ukrainian Conscientious Objector Activist Joins VFP Board of Advisors!

Yuriy Sheliazhenko, a courageous advocate of nonviolence living in Kyiv, counsels young men who refuse to fight. You can imagine the pressure he is under from the Ukraine government. His house has been ransacked more than once and he has been detained but so far luckily, not imprisoned. In recognition of his work, we sent him a VFP peace dove plaque, made at a workshop for the handicapped in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, where some of the students are third and fourth generation victims of Agent Orange. We received this thank you video and are also happy to announce that Yuriy will be joining our advisory board. Our gift and his work represent the very best of this season and the very best of what humans can be, if they would only stop and recognize their common humanity. [WATCH VIDEO.]

Poor People's Army March

Also known as the Poor People’s Economic Human Rights Campaign, the mission of the nonviolent Poor People’s Army is to keep people alive and to build a cooperative economy and society. Endorsed by Veterans For Peace, the two-week Poor People's Army March will go from Milwaukee – site of the Republican National Convention (July 15) – to Chicago – site of the Democratic National Convention (August 19).
