Resources

The Vietnam War Documentary VFP Discussion Guide

VFP members assembled PBS' brief descriptions of the 10 episodes along with concise, documented talking points you can use when participating in local PBS panels, making public statements or doing news interviews. In addition to the brief talking points and discussion questions, we've provided excerpts from important publications that provide deeper insight and further documentation. This paper will help you authoritatively address issues raised in the PBS series and answer fundamental questions about the war

Full Disclosure Website

The Full Disclosure campaign is a Veterans For Peace effort to speak truth to power and keep alive the antiwar perspective on the American war in Viet Nam -- which is now approaching a series of 50th anniversary events. It represents a clear alternative to the Pentagon's current efforts to sanitize and mythologize the Vietnam war and to thereby legitimize further unnecessary and destructive wars.

A Brief Chronology of Vietnam, the United States and their Relations

An amazing timeline and chronology assembled by John J. Fitzgerald & Howie Machtinger.

"America's Amnesia." written by Thomas A. Bass in the Mekong Review

The most comprehensive review of the Burns/Novick documentary that the Full Disclosure team has seen thus far.

Full Disclosure Newspaper

Full Disclosure is a special issue of VFP's quarterly publication, Peace in Our Times. It focuses completely on telling the truth about Vietnam. The Peace in Our Times Editorial staff just reprinted a second edition of Full Disclosure, specifically for the opportunity to spread our message of truth and accountability about the U.S. War on Viet Nam.
