TRUTH IN RECRUITING: INFORMATION FOR ACTIVE G.I.S

It is illegal under both U.S. and international law to launch a military attack against another nation unless it is clearly in self-defense, and is approved by the United Nations.

As such, we call on all service members to follow the long American tradition of listening to their conscience and remember that they have no obligation to follow illegal orders.

Veterans For Peace wants service-members to be fully informed as they make profound choices with possibly serious consequences.

THERE ARE A NUMBER OF OPTIONS FOR G.I.S WHO DO NOT WISH TO FOLLOW ILLEGAL ORDERS.

G.I. Rights Hotline: The G.I. Rights Hotline provides accurate, helpful counseling and information on military discharges, AWOL and UA, and G.I. Rights. Help is free and confidential. Visit their website (girightshotline.org) for more information on the process to become a conscientious objector and what to expect. Or call their Hotline number (877-447-4487) to talk over your options with a counselor.

The Center on Conscience & War: The Center on Conscience & War (CCW) is a non-profit organization that advocates for the rights of conscience, opposes military conscription, and serves all conscientious objectors to war. Visit the CCW website (http://centeronconscience.org) or contact CCW toll free: 1-800-379-2679 if you want to seek discharge or reassignment as a Conscientious Objector. CCW's services are free of charge.
