INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REVIEW REPORT

Board of Directors Veterans For Peace, Inc. St. Louis, Missouri

I have reviewed the accompanying statements of financial position of Veterans For Peace, Inc. (a Non-Profit Organization) as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of activities, cash flows and functional expenses for the years then ended. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of Organization management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

My responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require me to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements. I believe that the results of my procedures provide a reasonable basis for my report.

Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Organization and Activities – Veterans for Peace, Inc. was incorporated in 1985 under the non-profit statutes of the State of Maine. Its purpose is to promote alternatives to war by addressing the issues of national and international policies through peaceful and non-violent means.

The Organization's principal sources of revenue are from the collection of members' dues, charitable contributions and sales of educational and promotional items. It also earns fees for administering funds for various projects sponsored by member chapters.

The Organization is exempt from Federal and State income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Accounting Basis - The Company uses the accrual method of accounting.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements – Preparation of the accompanying financial statements requires the use of certain estimates and assumptions (including, but not limited to, determining useful lives of assets) that directly affect the results of reported assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Inventories - Inventories consist of books, videos and promotional items purchased for resale. Inventories are valued at average cost. No effort is made to determine whether cost exceeds market value.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method, based on the following estimated useful lives:

Office furniture and fixtures	7–10 years
Computer equipment	5 years

Net Assets - The Organization classifies assets, net of related liabilities, into three categories based upon the existence or absence of donor/grantor-imposed restrictions; unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets. When a restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Statements of Cash Flows - For purposes of the statements of cash flows, all highlyliquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents.
